Proposal for
 A Day in Morgantown WV with Tea and Knotts
 TOUR DATE,

8:15 AM Meet step-on-guide at Fat Angelos, corner of Big 6 Road and Ridgeview, at 100 Ridgeview Dr, Smithfield, PA 15478. To reach this location coming from the north, take PA Turnpike 43 south and take Exit 8—turn left onto Big 6 Road, then turn right on Ridgeview. A big industrial development is there and is easy for bus to turn around and return onto Turnpike 43 south. Your guide gives you a little talk about the Chestnut Ridge and its unique characteristics as we drive to Morgantown WV.

8:45-9:30 AM Apple Annies Bakery we make a quick stop for you to shop for some baked items, pies, cupcakes, treats, and snacks. You will receive a complimentary small breakfast to one of their famous 4oz. oatmeal and raisin cookies, and coffee, tea, milk or juice. Their pastries, pies, cookies and food are legendary. Their cookies have been nominated by USA today as one of the best in the country—voting ends June 9th, and currently they are in 2nd place!!

10:00-10:45 AM Mal's Produce Stand – everyone's favorite and largest in the area for fresh produce—a major participant in Saturday farmers' markets in the area.

11:15-12:00 PM Don Knotts Statue, history and Downtown Morgantown Tour with hop-on-guide. You will receive lots of WV swag and coupons!! Plus a map of Downtown for the next stop.

12:00-1:00 PM Shop at these places and get coupons for your purchases: The Hoot and Howl, Appalachian Gallery, and River Fair Trade. Browse other charming Artisan and Antiques Shoppes in town on Walnut, High, and Spruce Streets and be amazed at the low prices of quality artisan works. Great for gift shopping. Something for everyone!!!

1:30-3:30 PM Lunch & Shopping – Chose between a lovely Afternoon Tea or full sandwich and sides at the Tea Shoppe. This beautiful shoppe is embedded in the Seneca Center, an historic reinvented glass factory building. The atmosphere is eclectic and historic at the same time. The Tea Shoppe is well-known for its amazing varieties of teas, sandwiches, pastries and best of all, scones. Sweets vary depending on what the pastry chef is making and the scone flavors change daily. The Shoppe also has a wonderful variety of tea, tea pots and other tea serving items for purchase. Browse the Seneca Center following lunch-this center contains sporting, bike, flower shops, sewing and fabric shops as well as several other unique places. And don't forget, the Tea Shoppe has a variety of items for sale, including their delicious teas to purchase and enjoy at home!!

2 Choices for lunch: you Pick #1 or #2 (if #2- list your sandwich choice)

#1. Afternoon Tea Service: Served on a three-tiered tray per person: 3 tea sandwiches to include cucumber dill on white, tarragon chicken on croissant AND turkey with cranberry orange spread on ciabatta; 3 sweets, 1 scone per person served with Devonshire cream and lemon curd; tea (or coffee) (restaurant chooses 2 hot teas and 2 iced teas (sweet or unsweet) - this is very filling!

#2. Full Sandwich: Guest to choose 1 of the following 3 options - Tarragon Chicken on Croissant, Tavern Ham & Swiss on Italian; Egg Salad on Croissant) and Chips, Tea or Coffee, Dessert (cookie or bitesize sweet)

4:15-5:15 PM Forks of Cheat Winery and Distillery for wine/sprits tasting served with cheese and crackers. Nestled in the Appalachian Mountains of north central West Virginia, this winery produces a wide variety of prize-winning wines with an old-world tradition. Relax on their patio and take in the Wild Wonderful West Virginia beauty of the hills and forests surrounding this wonderful family-owned winery. Delicious wines, moonshine, honey & more.

5:45-6:30 PM Millers Greenhouse this is a destination greenhouse filled with tons of flowers and plants. You will receive a plastic “thank you” bag from your guide to put your plants in to carry home
